

Complaints Handling Procedure

We take every complaint we receive very seriously and work with our customers to deal with them quickly and in a satisfactory way.

- All complaints must be logged immediately and tracked using the relevant complaints log.
- If the complaint is initially notified to the removal crew, it must be noted on the job sheet. The foreman and customer must both sign the sheet and the foreman must then report the complaint to the office without delay.
- All complaints must be acknowledged within 3 working days of receipt. Telephone complaints will also receive a written response confirming details of the conversation – request that the customer complains in writing.
- The complaints log must be kept up to date with progress notes and all correspondence must be stored manually or electronically in the customer file.
- will monitor the complaint log to ensure that all complaints have been responded to within the specified time and resolved without delay.
- A formal written outcome of the investigation should be issued to the customer within 15 days of receiving the complaint.
- If the customer remains dissatisfied, we must advise the customer to write to us again to explain the reasons why they feel the complaint remains unresolved.
- We are to provide the customer with a written statement expressing our Final Viewpoint, following a second review of the complaint and refer the customer to the Furniture & Home Improvement Ombudsman (FHIO) within 8 weeks of receiving the complaint.
- If the matter has not been resolved within 8 weeks or we have not responded the customer is able to take their complaint to FHIO. (Provide FHIO's details to customer)
- We shall then co-operate with customer(s), their advisors and the FHIO in the resolution of complaints and/or the handling of liability/insurance claims.

CODE OF PRACTICE

As approved by the Board of Directors on 18th August 2020

FOREWORD

For over 100 years the British Association of Removers (BAR) has been the recognised voice of the professional moving and storage industry in the United Kingdom.

BAR Members range in size from small family businesses to multinational companies, but involvement in the industry alone does not qualify a company for membership. BAR inspects and investigates all potential Members and matches them against criteria for membership that cover premises, vehicles, staff, operational procedures and insurance arrangements. BAR also has a programme of ongoing inspection during membership to ensure standards are maintained.

Through this programme and through this CTSI Approved Consumer Code of Practice Scheme, BAR constantly seeks to raise standards in the industry so Customers may receive the most efficient and trouble free move possible.

This Code applies to all furniture removal activities for UK consumers dealing with a UK based BAR Member.

BAR and its Members recognise that moving home is a stressful experience and the purpose of this Code is to ensure that Members trade in a fair and reasonable manner. In the event that this does not happen, the Code sets out in-company procedures that should enable complaints to be resolved. If this fails, then BAR as Code Sponsor provides a low cost independent Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) scheme aimed at resolving problems quickly and fairly. Under this scheme the case will be determined by an independent accredited ADR organisation.

There is a range of disciplinary processes and sanctions built into the Code including expulsion for persistent or serious failure to comply with the Code.

Only bona fide Members of BAR, or approved partners, may legally use the BAR logo on vehicles, signage, websites, letterheads and promotional or packaging material.

Compliance with this Code is mandatory upon BAR Members who are also required to advertise their adherence to this Code.

You may always contact BAR Head Office on 01923 699480 to check that the company is a Member or you can visit the BAR website at www.bar.co.uk

No Code of this kind can lay down detailed rules of behaviour to cover every occasion. The Code's effectiveness is dependent on the observance of its provisions in the spirit as well as the letter. Compliance with this Code by Members of BAR is a powerful factor in maintaining and raising standards in the professional removal industry.

The British Association of Removers

8. DISPUTES

In the event of a dispute relating to the provision of a service covered by this Code, which cannot be resolved, either the Customer or the Member may refer it to the low cost independent Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) provided by the Association. Referral of a dispute to the ADR scheme does not prevent the Customer from taking subsequent legal action.

The Member must accede to participation in the scheme if the Customer so requests. Under this scheme, the case will be determined by an accredited independent ADR organisation. Recourse to the independent ADR scheme is subject to certain limits, current details of which are available upon request from BAR. Tel: 01923 699 486, Email: consumer.affairs@bar.co.uk.

The scheme is an effective and user friendly alternative to the County Court small claims procedure. Any award made under this scheme will be binding upon the BAR member. The consumer is free to reject the Ombudsman's decision or withdraw from the Ombudsman's process at any time. The BAR Independent Alternative Dispute Resolution scheme is provided by;

www.fhio.org

- 8.1 The Member's participation and co-operation in the ADR process shall be mandatory.

9 INFRINGEMENT AND ENFORCEMENT

BAR, as Code Sponsor, will investigate all alleged breaches of this Code.

An independent Disciplinary Committee ensures that the Code is enforced effectively and disciplinary procedures are effective, fair and impartial. In addition the Committee deals with serious cases of non-compliance with the Code. Where a potential breach of this Code has been identified during the course of investigating a consumer complaint, BAR will normally endeavour to resolve the complaint before addressing the alleged breach.

- 9.1 The Member against whom the allegation has been made shall provide a detailed response to the Association, within 14 days.
- 9.2 If the facts alleged against the Member are adjudged to constitute infringement of this Code, either the Association or the Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to impose any of the following sanctions:
